Conrad or Conrat Euler was b. 1690 and came to this country on the ship Allen From Rotterdam, last port Cowes on the Isle of Wright under Captian John Craig. They left on 7 July 1729 and landed in Philedelphia on 11 September 1729. He came with Alexander Mack and on the roster his name is signed very near Macks. I do not know his early movements and there is no record of him at Ephrata but the Ephrata Cloister records list Alexander Mack's son as a member.

My assumption is that religion was very important to this man, He is listed in the Grigg family history as a "High German". His early movements in this country are vague as is the place of his origin. He died in York Co. Pa. in 1751

Also on the ship with him were Gasper Kulp and Phillis Kulp.

Hiram Oyler apparently lived in Stoyestown, Somerset Co. Pa. most or all of his life. He married Ellen SHAEFER sometime before 1850 and had 5 children. The children are listed in BK. I have not been able to locate an obituary on him or a burial location.

As Stoyestown is a small city and has very few cemeteries it is likely that he either is not buried there or there was never a stone erected. As there is a general lack of interest in this family for documenting anything it is likely there was never a stone erected. It is also possible that since he was in debt when he died that what little money their might have been was used for other purposes.

Orphans court dockets place his death sometime late in 1862. The only know microfilm records of that era were located at Biessecker library in the city of Somerset, Somerset Co. Pa. At some past time there was a fire at the library and all the microfilms from the Civil war years were lost.

I have been to Stoyestown many times and have asked many people if they know of any small burial plots in the area. To date I have located only one other than Ling Ceme. on the main road. There are no Oyler burials there.

Hiram was a blacksmith and family tradition states he was kicked by a horse he was shoeing and killed. At the time of his death he owned only 1/4 acre of land that was sold to pay his debts. His son and my husband's ancestor, James Buchanan would have been eleven in 1870 and is listed as living with another family (I will add this when I find the census) . I do not know what happened to the others.

Family tradition also states that the children were raised by a tavern owner after their mothers death . To date I have not been able to figure out what happened to the children (except James) or their mother. I believe that Ellen either died sometime before 1870, or was subject to some other fate. Whatever happened to her , her family was apparently not raised by her.

There is a George Oyler buried in Sandyvale Ceme. I suppose it is possible that this child was a fifer or something in the Civil War , but as he was born about 1853 he would have been very young at his death. There was also a Pete Oyler living in Johnstown who died recently who was apparently the son of the youngest Child Hiram (Herman). What happened to Mary is unknown.

There was also a Frederick Oyler living in Stoyestown who is of the right age group to have been Hirams father. I have not however been able to establish any link. Frederick is not listed on the 1860 Census so I assume he either died or moved before then as there are also no land records I can find.

It is my hope to someday establish a history for Hiram Oyler. To date I have been searching for about 10 years, and it has eluded me.

c43 Valentine Oyler, GRAND- s/o Conrad the first was an interesting and probably a controversial character to say the least. He was born in Pa. in 1745. The most probable location being Plum Creek , a branch of Codorus Creek, west of the Susquehanna river.

The official date for his marriage to Susannah ~~Kulp~~ SHANKS is not known but it was before 1771. He was a Brethren and probably a Member of the Codorus Creek congregation lead by Michael Danner.

The German pioneers in Pa. And Md. were solid, peaceful farmers who only wished for well defined and orderly conditions rather than eternal quarreling and bickering over latitudes and boundaries. During the time of all this quarreling and misunderstandings his father lost part of his land that he had settled on in 1729.

John Diggs, wealthy Irishman of dubious reputation, obtained a large tract of land, which he then began selling to the Germans. He apparently oversold his acreage and was granted another 3679 acres from the land office in Annapolis. This land was in direct controversy with the "Royal edict" of which he outrightly ignored.

Valentine Oyler GRAND son of Conrad made a Deposition in 1746 attesting to the fact that John Diggs took a large part of his fathers land and said he would sell it to someone else unless Conrad paid for it.

There was continuous fighting until one of Diggs' sons was killed in 1752, after which things cooled down for a time.

Permanent peace finally came when Mason and Dixon surveyed the area, starting 1763 and ending in 1767.

It is of little wonder that these people who had fled a country of turmoil, and now found themselves in another unbearable situation began to migrate. They did not enjoy strife and turmoil.

After all of the fighting and confrontations over their land, Jacob Danner, a son of Michael Danner, one of the founders of the Brethren Congregation in the Conewago and a friend and neighbor of Jacobs father, Conrad, purchased land in Codorus Creek, and persuaded some of the people to go with him. Two of these people were Valentine and Jacob.

Valentine and Susannah bought 25 acres of land from Wilhelm(William) Gutman(Goodman) in Frederick Co. Md. It was called Muddy spring and part of Cooper's Alley.

Later, because of his religious beliefs, which included a refusal to bear arms, he found himself in the nucleus of a group migrating to Canada.

In 1778 he sold his two tracts of land to his father. This deed is the last evidence of him in Md.

These people left Frederick Co. Md. and York Co. Pa. sometime between 1779 and 1788. Most of them settled on islands in the Detroit river that both sides wanted. Their migration was not documented historically, probably because they went in small groups. Some of the places they settled in were, Amherstburg, Harrow, Arner, and Kingsville.

There are no records of Valentine on the island but his youngest son ,Samuel was born there in 1791. Also records show there were three other sons on the island.

It is probable that they settled on Grosse Ile, where hard winters took their inevitable toll . In 1792 there was a great exodus from Grosse Ile and among these people were friends of Valentine and Susannah.

In 1796 their two older sons were married and in business for themselves, another son was old enough to care for himself, their only daughter was unmarried and they had a five year old son. At this point they migrated back to the states and the next record of them is in Ohio in 1796.

In 1798, in Dayton twsp., Ohio, Valentine's name appears as a miller with Daniel C. Cooper. He settled on Woodman farm in Section 21. His youngest son Samuel died near Hagerstown in 1875. Also a book called "Pioneer Life in Dayton and Vicinity, 1796 to 1840" by John F. Edgar, lists Valentine in Dayton twsp.. Dayton twsp. was formed from parts of Greene, Champaign, Clark, Logan, Shelby, Miami and Montgomery Co's. Tax lists from 1798 list him as paying six dollars and twenty five cents, second only to D.C. Cooper. Sometime before Nov. 16, 1805 he purchased 158.53 acres in the S.E. 1/4 of Section 21, twsp. 2, range 7 of the M.R.S. (Mad River Survey) dated Nov. 16, 1805. In 1965 this section is within the city limits of Dayton. He was living on this land at the time of his death on Dec. 6, 1819. His will dated Apr. 18, 1813 leaves his entire estate to his wife Susanna. It makes no mention of his children. His burial place is unknown but is assumed to be somewhere on his property, and if so he lies under the streets of Dayton Ohio.

James Buchanan Oyler is the son of Hiram Oyler and one of the predecessors of my husbands family. He lived with his son at the time of his death. His wife is buried in her familys plot in Otterbien cemetery in Wilbur, Somerset County. Buried in this cemetery are his wifes parents, John and Catherine (German) Wagner, Emma Wagner Oyler his wife a young child Robert who died probably in his first year and Roy and his wife.

Was recruited for federal army to appear by Jan 30, 1781 but no service record exists. May have paid the 15 pound fine. There is no furthur record of him in York Co. other than mention in his fathers and Jacob Arndts will. He was deeded 150 acres in Franklin Co. Va. on Gills Creek near Benjamin Greers land on 2 Mar 1789. Oyler creek is mentioned in Franklin Co. in May 1786.

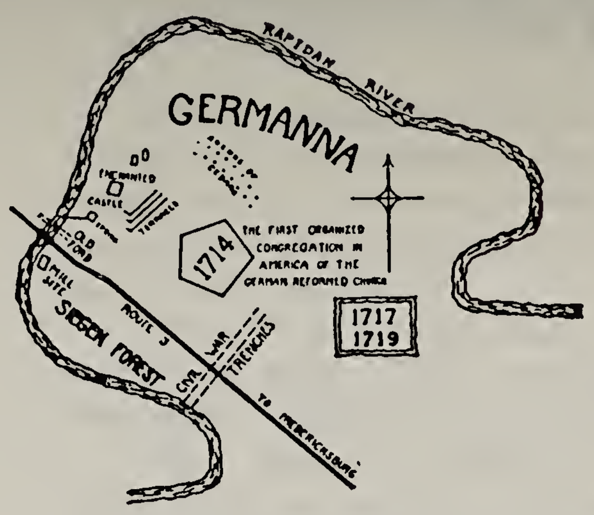
SIEGEN FOREST



The Corporation owns 270 acres, "Siegen Forest", of the original Germanna tract. The acquisition of this property was made possible by the generosity of one of the trustees of the Foundation.

By authority of the Virginia State Highway Commission, issued March 26, 1959, Virginia Route 3 from Culpeper to Fredericksburg has been designated GERMANNA HIGHWAY. This highway borders Siegen Forest and traverses the area where the first colony of 1714 was settled by Governor Spotswood.

Family names in the first colony (1714) from Siegen, Germany, were: Brumback, Fishback (Harmon and John), Haeger, Hitt, Hoffman, Holtzclaw, Kemper, Koontz or Coons, Martin, Rector, Spillman, and Weaver. In the second colony (1717) from Alsace, the Palatinate, and other districts were: Auberge, Ballenger, Blankenbaker, Broil (Jacob and John), Carpenter, Clore, Cobbler, Cook, Crigler, Fleshman, Holt, Kaffer, Mayer, Pavler or Parlur, Paulitz, Sheible, Smith, Snyder, Turner, and Utz.

This imposing "Martin Line" recalls its past, accounts for its present, and anticipates its future. From right to left, youthful William H., II peers far into the future. Mr. and Mrs. William H., one of the trustees; Hon. and Mrs. T. I., mayor of Culpeper; Mr. and Mrs. James M., one of the trustees — amply justify the present, while, together, they hearken back to the distinguished ancestor, John Joseph Martin, founder of the family in Virginia, here at Germanna in 1714.

DO YOU KNOW? DO YOU WISH TO KNOW? CAN YOU HELP?

Many genealogists have been working independently on single and related family histories. Much has been accomplished; much more is desired. Research continues. Have you questions you would like answered? Can you assist others by helping them solve their problems?

Mrs. Wm. Everett Bach of 165 Bell Court West, Lexington, Kentucky, asks: "Who were the parents of one John Holtzclaw who died in Pulaski County, Kentucky, ca. 1819?"

Mrs. Arden J. Millisor, 2008 Beverly Road, Columbus 21, Ohio, will be grateful to anyone who can put her in touch with descendants of the William Smith mentioned in the GERMANNA RECORD, or any other early settlers by that name.

Mrs. Jennie Garvey Seits, 2034 N.W. Oakridge Ave., Roseburg, Oregon, has nearly completed a "Partial History of the Garvey, O'Neal, Edwards, Glascock, Asbury, Fishback, and Related Families."

Mrs. Dr. Robert F. Estes, "Marshall-Douglass", Orange, Virginia, writes: "My research is bringing up to date one line of the Carpenter, the Utz, the Weaver, the Kieffer and Kerker families. I have gathered data from old Bibles and family records."

Records of the Hanback family were nearly complete last April at the time of Mr. Hollis Hanback's (the compiler) death. For information write to Mrs. Vella Hanback Ellis, 437 Poplar Ave., Waynesboro, Virginia.

Mrs. Sarah Aylor Lewis (Mrs. Robert S.) of Airport Acres, Route 4, Charlottesville, Virginia, has been diligent and successful in bringing together genealogical data on the Aylor family — from the first generation in America about 1729. Mrs. Lewis is a protegee of Prof. Claude Yowell, of Madison, Virginia.

The Briles-Broyles branch of the Family line in North Carolina is nearing completion. Confer with the compiler, Mr. C. R. Briles, 118 S. Main Street, Asheboro, North Carolina.

Dr. Warren W. Koontz, 107 Oakwood Place, Lynchburg, Virginia, has been successful in collecting genealogical data on the Koontz (Coons) family.

Prof. Delma Rae Carpenter continues his researches to link descendants of William Carpenter, immigrant in the 1717 colony.

at Thou hast called into existence man, and hast given him ason and remembrance, and ability, under the guidance of e Holy Spirit, to do works that redound to Thy Holy name and ory, and to the betterment of mankind.

On this occasion, Lord God, we are not unmindful of the rdships and sacrifices undergone by our forefathers to carve t a nation and a culture worthy of Thee and a boon to mannd. Today, in our prayers, we are mindful of those early oneers who did so much in opening the way for future generations to establish homes in this area. We are also mindful the fact that they felt the need of the service of God, and ereby erected a structure, though crude, in which they could eet to worship.

Lord, we thank Thee for those who are now giving of eir time and service to perpetuate the memory of those who ve left this heritage for future generations. We are proud of eir heritage and may their memory never die. We bless Thee is day for the service of those of our number whom Thou hast en fit to take to their eternal reward. May we perpetuate their emory by continuing our efforts to make this place a shrine them and their successors.

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen

The five-sided pavilion, dedicated July, 1961, reminds us of the 18th century blockhouse constructed for their protection from marau Indians but used by the immigrants for religious worship. The penta the two granite shafts which memorialize, respectively, the 1714 and 1717 colonies, the mill wheels, reclaimed from the Rapidan nearby, the attractive highway marker constitute the unit which serves as focal point for visitors to the 270-acre tract, renamed Siegen Forest.

Dear Sir .
I am hoping to obtain information on a relative of mine whom I believe is buried in your cemetery. He was living with his son at the time of his death , and I do now know the exact date, although I have been told he was near 100 at~~h~~ the time of his dea th. His name is James Buchanan Oyler, not to be confused with his son James Howard Oyler, who I am definately sure is buried in your semetery from his death certificate. James Howard died 26 April 1965, and James Buchanan was BORN 13 Dec. ~~1856~~ 1853. I need the date of death and other onformatiin for a family history. If there is any cost incurred. please inform me , and I will remit same. Thank you for your time and help.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Oyler

ascertaining the boundary line between Virginia and Pennsylvania in pursuance of the agreement made at Baltimore Aug. 31, 1779.

Mr. Black's Tavern was operated by JAMES BLACK a Scotchman and his wife JANE McDONOUGH who had married in 1771, and then came into the wilderness of Bedford, now Somerset County to make their home. A descendant W. Harold Black writes, "On the Glade Road James Black built and operated the first hotel in Somerset County." Henry Black son of James was the father of JEREMIAH SULLIVAN BLACK who served as Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President Buchanan. (Additional records of the Black family printed Laurel Messenger May, 1961.) CASPER STOTLER was also a very early Tavern keeper. The Deeter improvement mentioned by T. Hutchins was the farm of Revolutionary War veteran, John Deeter. He was a natural mechanic and constructed his own saw-mill. He also cut mill-stones for customers. A mill stone (said to have been cut by his son Samuel) marks the grave of John and his wife Catherine Springer. They died in 1828. Their Bible names the following children, MAGDALENA b. 21 Apr. 1787; JOHN (1789-1812); ELIZABETH b. 4 May 1792; SAMUEL b. 25 Aug. 1794; JACOB b. 3 Apr. 1796; HENRY b. 22 Mar. 1798, died age 3 mo.: CATHERINE b. 8 Mar. 1800; ZALI (Sally) b. 27 May 1809.

Dear Cathy:

Thank you very much for your letter of Jan. 30.

No, don't do any more research. I know about the immigrant, Conrad Eiler/Oyler.

I called some of the Oylers in the phone book while I was there and they couldn't tell me anything. Do not contact them.

Do not do anything futher, but if you should run across something in the future, please let me know.

If I ever get all my info and notes together, I will send you a copy for your file.

On my last day in Bedford Co. in May 1985 I found a cemetery on Joseph Mattas' farm. It is on the hill in front of his house. The following were names on tombstones:

1249 1250

Theodore George Albright Kaufman, b. 7 May 1743; his wife
1248 Margaret Eyler; their children Conrad, Abraham, Susan (Margaret Eyler/Oyler Kaufman/Coffman was a daughter of 34 Jacob Oyler. Of course, Jacob may be in the cemetery in an unmarked grave.)

George Sill, Dollie Sill, Jacob Reichard & their unknown buried here.

E.S. 1832 - aged 66 d 28 Apr. 18 ?

Apr 12, 1896. FRS A 88

? July 18, 1813

Mrs. Mattas told me about Tom Imler and I later found out he was in a nursing home.

Deed Book C, pp 608, 609; 31 July 1792 - Deed between Jacob Iler of the Twp of Bedford and Jacob Saylor and George Michael Imler of the other part. Warrant granted to Alexander Rogers by the Proprietaries dated 1 May 1762 for 300 acres joining Gerald Pendergrass, Jr. lying on a run emptying into Dunnings Creek about a mile above the mouth of Millar's Run seven miles from Bedford ... by Christopher Diver's land ... by a mountain ... by Patrick Kelly's ... by a vacant ridge.

Alexander Rogers sold the land to William Coxe, William Coxe sold the land to Jacob Iler, 16 Mar. 1789. Jacob Iler sold 123¼ acres of the land to Jacob Saylor and George Michael Imler, executors of Mathias Walters, for Mathias Walter's children. Witnesses Wm Ward, Jacob Nagle, George Cofman; recorded 6 Aug. 1792 (George Cofman was Jacob Iler's son-in-law. George Cofman is the one buried on Joseph Mattas' farm.)

I believe they lived in what is called Dutch Corner. I believe that's what that area was called when I was there.

I'm going to try to get up that way again this year to a neighboring county to do more research.

Bedford is a beautiful town and county. I really enjoyed my stay there last May. The people couldn't have been nicer to me. Just wished you had more information on my ancestor.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Calvin

Dear Mr. Heron :

Your request of the Pioneer Library for Oyler-Miller information has been given to me.

I note in the inclosed chart the Hesekiah/Mary Miller relationship, which I have not reconsiled.

It so happens that for a number of reasons I have been working on the Millers of Millegas's cove. My efforts have extended over a considerable time, and needless to say I have encountered problems in tracing the descendents from Peter, John and Elias Miller. The greatest difficulty has been with Peter, since that name appeared in the three lines, in different generations - and in various political subdivisions. However, I am now getting my information in a comprehensive order.

From your chart showing Hesekiah Miller, d. Aug 26 1900, I find the following Bedford Court record:

Hesekiah M. Miller, his wife Susan(nah) S.
Children:

Simon
Tobias
Samuel
Emma	m.	Johnson
Elizabeth	m.	Oyler	35063
Catharine	m.	McCarney
Hannah	m.	Mootheart
Sophia	m.	Gutherie

Your chart reflecting Hesekiah and Mary A. Miller, according to Bedford records also, appears to apply to Hesekiah G.Miller who also lived in Millegan's cove.

In 1880 , a tract of land in Millegan' cove, containing between 51 and 52 acres was sold to Tobias Miller, by Hesekiah M. Miller and his wife Susan. The land had earlier been in the hands of Daniel Earnest and adjoined land later in the hands 30564 John W. Oyler.

Incidentially, I hope that you received the Oyler family data that I sent to you some months ago, and that you found the details satisfactory.

In the event that you would want furthur search, kindly advise. In the meantime, as I review the Miller records I will keep your interest in mind.

The search for Kegg family In the southern provinces is proving to be slow. However, I have found something on Hans Kack, who came out of Virginia in the 1750s. That may be the important find of 1983.

Respectfully

Dear Calvin,

As a member of the Pioneer Historical Society here in Bedford, I was given your request to research OYLER. Since your had apparently been here in Bedford looking and had found the Orphans' Court reference your asked for the place where Jacob lived and is buried.

We have a set of eight volumes on Cemeteries in Bedford County, done by Tom Imler. I checked through each of those for Jacob and for any other Oylers. I found that there was a John Oyler farm graveyard in Milligan's Cove. It said that you turn left at the eastern end of Mann's Choice. (Not too far west of Bedford). I quote "Mr. John Oyler's son told me that there were about 100 graves in this plot. Some few have been removed, and there are still quite a few having natural stone markers, without inscriptions. The following are all that are marked: 35098

Rachel, dau of H. and M.A. Miller. d. 5/4/1878, age 26/10/27. 6/7/1551
Nancy, consort of George Wortz, dec'd ? 1797, age 36 years.
George Wortz d. 1/21/1837 age 84/3/4.

I went through other volumes in the historical society library and their card indices, looking for any information on Jacob, or the family in general. No luck. The 1790 Pa Census lists Jacob Oyler of York Co. I assume that he is the son? of Conrad who came from Germany to York County? Have you checked the census indices for 1800, 1810 etc for children? Do you want me to do so?

There are 3 Oylers in Bedford County phone book. Have you tried them? Paul R. Oyler, RD A 4, ADDR Everett, Pa; Ruth A., 312 Pitt St., Bedford; William E., S Barclay Dr, Bedford. Do you want me to contact them?

Though I spent considerable time looking for your Jacob, I feel very unsatisfied that the search is exhausted. When you have such an early date for a death and burial, the sources are limited. Let me know if you would like me to look any further.

ir life together began in 1916 when they married by Rev. J.W. Albertson in Jen- wn. They went to housekeeping in the ing mining town of Acosta. The respon- es of a company-employed farmer were asy for Preston. Besides cultivating the he cared for all the mules and horses ere used in and out of the mines. These World War I years and coal was in great nd. The war brought tragedy to the fam- ella's brother Harry was drafted into the and in less than a year he was killed in rgonne Forest in France. It was here in a that they experienced their first min- rike and the flu epidemic in 1920.

he Spring of 1923, they purchased their nt home, the Mike Shaulis Farm north esville just off 219. Here, they operated y farm for thirty-seven years. Eighteen em were without electricity. The house arn were lighted by oil lamps and lan- Water was pumped into the house by and to the barn from a nearby spring by ulic ram.

e Oglines were pioneers in the area in ying milk to the Johnstown Sanitary , first known as Somerset Dairy. The work was done with horse drawn ma- s. It wasn't until the thirties that tractors arger pieces of machines were used. In the early fourties the R.E.A. brought electricity to the farm. Along with it came milking machines, refrigeration, electric motors and other appliances.

Della and Preston had three daughters. Ida Mae, a graduate nurse, is the wife of James Barnett. Pauline, a former Home Economics teacher, married Michael Zimmerman. Both operate dairy farms on Boswell R.D. #2. A third daughter, Frieda, married to Wilbur Baker, died in 1958. The Oglines have eleven grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren.

They are both members of the Christ Casebeer Lutheran Church. Preston, an active community member, served on the Lincoln Township School Board for twenty-four years. During that time the Somerset Area School District was formed, merging Lincoln, Jefferson and Somerset Townships with Somerset Borough. The new school at Sipesville was also built. He is a charter member of the Sipesville Lions Club, and a past President of the Sipesville Water Company.

The Oglines retired in 1961. Michael Zimmerman, a son-in-law, took over the farm. After retirement, Mr. Ogline, somewhat handicapped by his impaired eyesight, still enjoyed his hobbies of hunting, fishing and caring for his fruit orchard. Mrs. Ogline worked side by side with her husband those early days on the farm. She enjoyed most of all raising flowers and vegetable gardening. Submitted by Pauline Zimmerman

ROBERT OGLINE FAMILY

Bob and I lived in Somerset Co. most all our lives, except for two years when he served as a Medic in the U.S. Army and several months he worked on farms in adjoining counties. Bob's main occupations were farming and truck driving. I didn't go to work until most of our children were in school. We were married January 1953. Bob was born in Acosta, 1933. I was born 1934, in Somerset Twp. on a farm owned by my father, Geo. W. Barclay. My grandfather, Nelson Barclay, owned it first. My brother George presently owns the farm.

We have nine children: Kathy was born in 1954; Carol, 1956; Gary, 1957; David, 1958; Karen, 1960; Cheryl, 1962; William, 1963; Timothy, 1965; and Bobbi Jo, 1972. All were born in Somerset except Kathy, who was born in Georgia. Three are married; they also live in Somerset Co. We have four grandchildren.

Bob and I live in Shade Twp. near Wilbur. We have a small place on three acres, large enough to have a garden and raise some small livestock for our own use (dairy goats, chickens, turkeys, rabbits and other pets). I work in a factory in Somerset and Bob has his own wedge mill and makes wedges for the mines.

Both our familes' ancestors have lived here in Somerset Co. for many generations, apparently coming from Germany. When Bob and I were very young we remember our grandparents speaking among themselves in Penna. Dutch.

Bob's father was Paul Ogline; his grandfather was Philip Ogline. He had a farm in Jenner Twp. and his great grandfather was Hiram Ogline and lived in Lincoln Twp.

Bob's mother was Verda Lohr. Her father was Calvin Lohr, and her grandfather, Zacariha Lohr.

I am the seventh generation on my father's side. His name was George Barclay. Jacob Barclay arrived in America prior to the Revolution. They lived mostly around the area of Bakersville. Most all were farmers. My great grandfather, Wesley Barclay, married Amanda Weyand. Her grandfather, Rev. Henry Weyand, came to America in 1800. After being a traveling preacher he bought a farm west of New Lexington. My father's mother was Annie Gardner. Her ancestors go back to George Gardner, born in 1741, who bought a farm west of Stoystown in 1796.

My mother's (Goldie Beck) great grandfather, Rev. Nickolas Beck, came from Germany in 1832 and settled on a farm near Bakersville, or what was known as Pleateau-De-Mount. Her grandfather was Jacob Beck and her father was Charles Beck. Most all were farmers.

We all have very deep roots here in Somerset County and wouldn't think of living anywhere else. By Robert E. Ogline and Ruth E. Ogline

George Ohler Family

OHLER FAMILY HISTORY

In the mid-eighteen hundreds John Ohler brought his family from Milford to Larimer Township to seek employment in building the B&O railroad. One son, George, was hired to cut ice in the Sandpatch Tunnel. This railroad tunnel was an engineering feat of its day — cutting a mile through the Allegheny Mountains.

While working there, George met Mary Mathilda (Bittner) Carter, the widowed daughter of a local innkeeper. In 1877 they were married and he became the stepfather of three children: Alfred, Hattie and Mary Ellen, known as Molly. The couple later moved to Summit Township where he operated a coal eorge and Mathilda had ten children. A of twins died at birth. The other children e: Agnes Maltina, Carrie Elizabeth, Suna, Margaret, Cyrus Peter, Charles, Clara rl and George Clay, n 1903, when George, the youngest child, eight years old, his father died, leaving mine, located north of Glade City, to his low and older sons. In order to settle the ate, the mine was sold and passed from the ily hands.

t the age of 14, George went into the brick d, located at Keystone, and worked there il it burned. After working briefly to help ld the Western Maryland Railroad, he nt into the coal mines, a profession he pur-d until his retirement. This work was in-upted once by World War I when he ved in Germany.

n 1926 Mathilda died and George re-ined in the house he had built for her on property originally bought by his father.

n 1936 George married Pauline Ruth Mish- the daughter of Charles and Ida Rebecca shler, of Berlin RD. She had lived in the a known as "The Shaft." They are the par-s of three children: Galen, husband of se Marie Bowman; Joan, wife of Dewey es Jr., and Fay.

Mary Catherine and William R. Ohler

WILLIAM OHLER FAMILY

y husband, William R. Ohler, died nine rs ago on March 15, 1970. At that time we d in Meyersdale. Since then I have sold house and bought a trailer. I now live near rett, across the road from my daughter son-in-law. Bill and I both were born in nerset County. We have always lived und the Meyersdale-Berlin area.

ost of Bill's ancestors were from Germany also. One from Heidleberg and one from Luxemberg. In Germany Housel was spelled Hansel. Bill's father, and uncle and my grandfather were all Civil War Veterans.

Bill was one of ten children and I was one of eleven. He and I had six children. I also helped raised three children of Bill's. Their mother had died when they were very small; one of these sons was killed in World War Two.

Bill worked in the mines. He had his back injured twice, the last time leaving him disabled. We had a very hard time raising our family, as there was very little income. We lived near Berlin on a farm, where we had cows, chickens, pigs, and always planted a large garden and did lots of canning. If it had not been for this, I do not know how we would have managed to live. Since Bill was unable to drive anymore, when our two sons were drafted into the army in 1953, we moved into Meyersdale. This way we were close to stores and medical help.

Bill had a severe heart-attack in 1962, leaving him an invalid for almost two years; he had to learn to walk again. During this time I was employed at the hospital in Meyersdale. I was still employed there when he died but have since retired.

I have seen many changes in my lifetime such as the turning of a spigot for hot or cold water, electricity in homes, most families with at least one vehicle, several radios, televisions, and telephones in many homes, plus many more changes.

I enjoy working in my garden, reading and traveling. I have traveled quite a lot in the last few years with my children. Some summers I have gone with three different ones at different times. I also have sixteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Submitted by Mary Catherine (Housel) Ohler

OPEL FAMILY HISTORY

I, Margaret Opel Witt, am of the fourth generation of the Opels of German ancestry living in Somerset Co. Adam Opel, b. 1798, arrived from Strausburg to Maryland with a military release from the German Army after Napoleon's defeat at Waterloo. He left a 15 yr. old son, Johann Opel. In 1851 this son came from Huff with Andrew Hetz. Johann married Margaretha Beckett and became my grandfather. They lived in "Devil's Half Acre" near Grantsville, Md. at Keyser's Ridge. Eight children were born. My father John Adam Opel was the fourth.

He was a woodsman and was attracted to the mountains of timber in Somerset County. He married Ida Engle of Elk Lick Twp. and settled in Summit Mills, Summit Twp. They had five children: Orpha, Earl, Margaret (me), Almeda and Josiah John. Timber was my father's life work. He had a steam powered mill and cut timber for houses, barns and railroads. A lot went to building Meyersdale which was then growing rapidly. We kids explored wild life, rode the carriage past the big circular saw, did farm chores and went to school. Father was a school director and bossed the construction of the "new" road from Meyersdale through "Lichty Bottom."

Of this family all except myself migrated to died in their chosen localities. Orph (Menges) went to Keyser's Ridge — the Ope Farm. Earl taught school, then went to WW and back to Pa. into electrical engineerin with Natco Tool Co. in Richmond Ind. taught school, collected taxes and wrote census twice. I married Frank Witt of Summi Mills, a WW I Vet. Almeda married Ross Witt, Summit Mills, WW I vet, and lived Youngstown, Ohio. Josiah married Rosin Kline, served in WW II and lived in Ohio.

My own family of three sons have married Frank E., Jr. m. Virginia Lynch, Leland O. m Louise Blubaugh and Stanley C. m. Mar Stafford. They have given us 10 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. They all love t live and/or visit "Mongst the Hills of Somerset."

We remained in Summit Mills, teachin and farming. I remember the "lit-up skies" when we climbed Dad's hill to watch the cok ovens' fiery reflections at Shaw Mines, jus over the next hill. We are five miles from "H Point" and the "Big Spring" in Negro Mountain. The high viaduct of the W.MD.R.R. is now unused except for hiking and biking. The location there is being studied as a good place to establish a community park.

Our family celebrated Frank's 84th birthday and our 60th Wedding Anniversary. We love Somerset County where we grew up, but served almost world wide activities. We tell the youngsters, "There's no place like home" — that is, Somerset Co., Pa. By M.O. Witt

Mother — Elizabeth Oresko

JOSEPH ORESKO FAMILY

My parents, Joseph and Elizabeth Oresko, immigrated to this country from Hungary in the early nineteen-hundreds to seek a better way of life.

Joseph Oresko came to Windber, Pa. in 1915 and immediately started to work in the coal mines owned by the Berwind-White Coal Mining Company. I remember as a child waiting for my father's safe return home from work. In those days mine accidents were frequent. We lived near the mines and the miners were able to walk to work. It was always a treat to check the lunch bucket to see what may have been left to eat which had the odor of being underground. A round galvanized tub was placed in front of the coal stove in the kitchen for washing. He continued to work in the mines for twenty-three years when he re-

The Medical Profession in Bedford Co

But for an unfortunate accident, Dr. Louderbaugh would have had quite a few years more as a practicing physician. Injured badly in an automobile accident on his way to a patient in the country, he was taken to the Johns Hopkins Hospital. There he underwent an operation and had medical treatment which proved ineffective. His health steadily declined, and on June 26, 1917, he died only a little past the age of sixty. His body was taken to Buck Valley, Fulton County, for burial. Today a visit to the Methodist Church cemetery there discloses the memorial stones of Frank Louderbaugh and his wife close to that of his friend and teacher, Dr. W. L. McKibben.

In 1967, four of the doctor's daughters are living, all at ~~James Creek.~~ We are indebted to one, Mrs. Edna Frank, for most of this account of her father's life.

OYLER, W. H.

We quote Waterman Watkins' short paragraph telling of this physician:

7782

> "Dr. W. H. Oyler settled at Ray's Hill (now Breezewood) in 1882. He is a native of Adams County, and a graduate of the University of New York City."

To this we can add only the record of Dr. Oyler's membership in the Bedford County Medical Society in the years 1886, 1887, and 1888.

CAMPBELL, TOBIAS
(1857-1912)

Our first knowledge of the existence of this physician came with the discovery of his name in the Bedford County Directory of 1900. Though he was not listed on the membership rolls of the Bedford County Medical Society, Dr. Campbell served the people of the Loysburg area for fourteen years. He came to the village shortly after his graduation from the Jefferson Medical College in 1882. In 1902, he moved to Martinsburg, Blair County. It was there that he died suddenly at his home on the morning of September 7, 1912, after an illness of only three days.

Dr. Campbell's childhood home was in Elysburg. After he came to Loysburg, he married Margaret Aaron. They had two children, a son and a daughter.

Everett. When he turned to medicine, he chose the Maryville College of Maryville, Tennessee, to enroll for his pre-medical training. However, he chose the same medical school at the University of Pennsylvania and the same hospital at Lancaster that his elder brother had attended.

In 1945, he returned to Everett to enter private practice but stayed there only until 1951. During those years he was on the staff of Bedford County's Memorial Hospital, and became a member of the county medical society. Dr. Luther Myers did some post-graduate study between 1948 and 1950, that included a special course in electrocardiography at Harrisburg.

Since 1951, Dr. Myers' home and practice have been at Maryville, Tennessee.

McCONVILLE, EDWARD B.
(1920-)

Dr. McConville is a native son of New Jersey, born at Trenton, on March 21, 1920. He completed pre-medical studies at St. Francis College, Loretto, Pennsylvania, in 1940, and became a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College in 1944. His internship was served in the United States Marine Hospital at Stapleton, New Jersey, and his residency, in general surgery, at the Cooper Hospital, both between the years of 1953-57. During that time too he was taking post-graduate work in surgery at the University of Pennsylvania.

In 1948, Dr. McConville came to the Bedford County Memorial Hospital to practice general surgery, remaining in Bedford till 1962. Since that time he has been in practice at Clewiston, Florida.

EYLER, JOSEPH ALBERT Jr.
(1920-)

The mounted head of a bighorn sheep on the wall of Dr. Eyler's office is a clue to one of his pleasures--hunting. This sport he learned to enjoy in his boyhood, tramping the woods with his father in search of game.

Dr. Eyler's physical presence and mild manner of speech are so like those of the late J. Albert Eyler, D. D., that to one who knew the minister, the resemblance is almost uncanny. J. Albert, Jr., is the youngest of the three living children of Joseph Albert and Elizabeth (Wohlson) Eyler. His father was called from Lisbon,

PIONEER LIBRARY
Bedford, PA 15522

Ohio, to be the pastor of St. John's Reformed Church (now the United Church of Christ) before his last son was born. It was in Bedford that both parents lived out their lives.

Dr. Eyler, the younger, is a product of the Bedford Schools. In high school he had what he describes as "a brush with music" as a trumpeter in the school and Legion bands.

Like many other Bedford boys, he worked as a caddy at the Bedford Springs golf club, the place where he got his start as a player. Possibly the high light of his golfing is the time that he shot a hole-in-one on the seventeenth hole at the club. Dr. Eyler still enjoys the game though his time on the links is limited by his duties as a physician.

For his father, sending the youngest child to college posed a financial problem. When J. Albert, Jr., was ready to enter Franklin and Marshall College, his brother Paul was in medical school, and his sister, Anna Mary, was in college. Thus young Eyler found it necessary to earn money for part of his expenses. At college, he was an asisstant in the chemical laboratory; during vacation months, he was an attendant at the local Esso station on the Turnpike.

Immediately after Albert Eyler completed his college work, he entered the medical school of Temple University and in 1944, was graduated, an M. D. A year each of internship and residency followed at the Harrisburg General Hospital. He was then called to military service as physician on Army transport vessels from 1946 through 1948, when he was released with the rank of Captain, MC.

Dr. Eyler and the former Barbara Mollenauer were married in 1942. They are the parents of two daughters. In 1966, the elder is a senior at Dickinson College, the younger, a junior at Bedford High School.

This doctor's return to Bedford was by design on two counts. First, he desired to settle in a small town; second, he wished the variety in his profession that only general practice affords. He freely admits too that his home town has always held a special charm for him.

Dr. Eyler maintains his office on South Bedford Street, Bedford, and his home in Lakewood, two miles west of town. He is on the staff of the Bedford County Memorial Hospital. Dr. Eyler is a member of the county medical society, having served as its president; he also holds membership in the Pennsylvania Medical Society and the AMA. When the Heart Association was organized in the county, he served as its first president. Since 1948, he has been an examiner for the Bedford Area Schools. For some years too he has given his service gratis as physician for Bedford High School's athletic teams. He is also a member of the local Rotary club which he once served as president, of the American Legion, and of the United Church of Christ.

Dear Phyllis

In response to your letter which reached me at our temporary Florida address. (we'll be here while my husband is on a 6 mo assignment):

I too am trying to determine some of ancestors in what I think is the same line as your OYLER (EYLER, ETC.,) my mother was MABEL A. KYLER (a twin to MURBLE) her parents were; SARA KEEBAUGH m. to BENJ. WILLIS KYLER

SARA'S parents were; FRANCES ALLER (or OLLER) m to JOHN KEEBAUGH
FRANCES' parents were; SUSAN NAUGLE m to CHRISTIAN ALLER
CHRISTIAN'S parents; MARGARET WAGONER m. to PETER ALLER 28960?
(PETER ALLER is said to have served in Revolutionary War
(a Keebaugh kinsman is involved with FULTON Co. Historical Society & has filled me in with some info.)

I do not know if you have contacted FULTON Co Historical Society, (or of Bedford or Somerset Counties!) at one point in time several of today's counties were known as one & the same county.

The Historical Society has reprinted a huge volume "History of Bedford Somerset & Fulton Co"

I also have Fulton Co Hist Soc. publications of;
"U.S. Direct Tax of 1798 of Fulton Co, PA",
"Down the Pike" - (a History of Chambersburg-Bedford Turnpike Co. (started at 1806)
also "1850 U.S. Census for Fulton Co, PA"

My Mother always thought the American spelling of line was OLLER an aunt (by marriage) has Sara's family Bible & reads the handwriting as ALLER when I wrote to her

It is said connected to James Smith of BLACK Boy fame
10 yr before Revolution, >54

(10.) SMITH, (my maiden name)

I am back to ANDREW SMITH (my great great great grandfather)
? where, when born ? his parents, his wife
I do have him (ANDREW) as father of:
GEORGE SMITH born 1770 who is my direct great great grandfather.

11. MOLYNIEUX MALLONEE, I have Mary Mallonee
born 1781 m. to George Smith (b. 1770) above
I have been told Mary's father was a French soldier who came to fight (~~for~~ when France helped us fight in Revolution) he liked America & stayed on after the war ended. -

from "DOWN THE PIKE"
P 54 + P 55 - The name OYSTER had shares in original PIKE CO.
(my mother thought this was another spelling for our OLLER/ALLER connection)
(I've also wondered if ALLEN is not another spelling.)
My Mother showed me (in 1940-50) when going to visit relatives - old buildings on both sides of a narrow highway (I think the "Old Lincoln Highway") + said connections of family or ancestors managed or owned & the buildings were a part of Old Pike of early 1800's! - (about 1940 one side had gas pumps to fill cars.)

THE AYLOR FAMILY*

The German name was probably Oehler, which is the way it is usually spelled in the Hebron Church records and the way it was spelled by Henry Aylor, No. 2 below, in various documents. Several other spellings occur in the records, but the name has for a long time usually been spelled Aylor. The Aylor family is treated briefly in Germanna Record No. 6 (pp. 51-2) and they and the Tanners are the only descendants of Henry Snyder, the 1717 Germanna colonist, and his wife Dorothy (Germanna Record No. 6, p. 40). Henry Snyder, in his will dated Nov. 30, 1742, probated in Orange Co., Va. Mar. 26, 1747, left all his property to his wife Dorothea, to his daughter Anna Magdalena Aler, widow, and to her children Henry Aler and Elizabeth Tanner. The records do not show the first name of Anna Magdalena's husband, though he was probably a John Pieter Oehler who landed at Philadelphia on the ship "Thistle" June 19, 1730. Whether this identification is correct or not, in any case the Aylors do not seem to have been among the 1717 Germanna colonists, but came over later with their two children to join Anna Magdalena's parents in Orange Co. This is confirmed by the fact that Anna Magdalena's son, Henry Aylor, was naturalized April 19, 1745 (Giuseppi "Naturalization of Foreign Protestants in the American and West Indian Colonies," p. 9), showing that he was born in Germany. He must have been at least 21 in this year, so born about 1724. The tradition in the Aylor family is that they lived some time near Essen Germany, where they were iron workers; but Henry Aylor's naturalization shows that he was a native of Wuertemberg. The article on the Aylors in Germanna Record No. 6 is, then, in error, in stating that Henry Aylor was born in this country.

First Generation

1. .... Aylor (perhaps John Peter above) was born approximately 1695-1700 in Germany and died prior to 1742, probably in Virginia. He married, probably prior to 1717, Anna Magdalena Snyder, daughter of the 1717 colonists Henry and Dorothy Snyder, and after his death she became the second wife of the 1717 Germanna colonist, John Harnsberger, who mentions in his will his wife's children, Elizabeth Tanner and Henry Aylor (Germanna Record No. 6, pp. 27-28). Issue:

2. Henry Aylor, b. approximately 1723-4.

3. Elizabeth Aylor, b. probably ca. 1720-22, as she was married to Christopher Tanner prior to the date of her grandfather Snyder's will in 1742 (for her descendants see the Tanner Family).

Second Generation

2. Henry Aylor (John Peter?) was born in Wuertemberg, Germany ca. 1723-24 and died in 1806, the date of probate of his will being Aug. 28, 1806, in Madison Co., Va. (Madison Co. W. B. 2, p. 87). His wife, Anna Margaret, whom he married ca. 1744-5, seems to have been the daughter of the 1717 Germanna colonists, Jacob and Susannah Crigler (for the Criglers, see "The Crigler Genealogy"; also, Germanna Record No. 6, pp. 23-25). Henry Aylor's first deed was in Orange Co., Va. in 1747 (D. B. 1, p. 43). He and his wife were active in Hebron Lutheran Church and were communicants in 1775. His name was spelled Heinrich Oehler in the Hebron records, and as Heinrich Ehler in one of his real estate transactions. Issue of Henry Aylor No. 2 and his wife Anna Margaret Crigler (from the will and the settlement of his estate in 1809):

4. Henry Aylor, b. approximately 1745.

5. Jacob Aylor, b. 1748.

6. Abraham Aylor m. Mary Shearer in Madison Co., Va. Oct. 10, 1801. They had no children when his father's will was written in 1805, and no children are known later on. Abraham Aylor was a soldier in the Revolution in the First Virginia State Regiment (Gwathmey "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", p. 29). He is shown in the personal tax lists of Madison Co. through 1810 and probably died about that time. A Mary Aylor, who died in 1833 and was a member of Robinson River Baptist Church, was probably his wife.

7. Magdalena Aylor (called Molliner and Margaret) m. Adam Delph, son of Conrad Delph and grandson of Mathias Castler, the immigrant (see manuscript on the Delph family).

8. Susannah Aylor, m. James Murray, who was a Lieutenant in the Revolutionary War.

9. Delilah Aylor, b. 1760 (aged 90 in the Madison Co. Census of 1850), m. Muscoe Newman.

10. Mary Aylor, m. a Bohannon.

Third Generation

4. Henry Aylor was born ca. 1745 and died in Madison Co., Va. 1811-12. He married ca. 1770 Barbara Carpenter, b. ca. 1753, No. 14 of the Carpenter genealogy in Germanna Record No. 11, daughter of Andrew Carpenter No. 3, who was a soldier in the French and Indian War. She was still living in Madison Co. in the Census of 1820, with a son, aged 16-26 (probably William) living with her. Henry Aylor and Barbara communed at Hebron Church 1797-1809. His estate was settled May 28, 1812 (Madison Co. W. B. 1; also W. B. 2, p. 365). Three of his children were under age at the time, Sarah and Susannah being under the guardianship of Major Lewis Crigler, and James under the guardianship of Joseph Carpenter. Barbara did not die until about 1836, the year in which her estate was settled. According to the "Thornton Notes", Henry Aylor was in the Revolutionary War. A Public Service Claim is one file showing that Henry Aylor furnished for public use 300 pounds of beef. Issue:

11. Lewis Aylor, b. 1788.

12. Michael Aylor b. Oct. 11, 1772.

13. Absalom Aylor.

14. William Aylor.

15. John H. Aylor, b. before 1775.

16. James Aylor b. 1795.

17. Benjamin Aylor, b. 1778.

18. Elizabeth Aylor b. Dec. 26, 1776, m. Dec. 21, 1798 her cousin, Aaron Carpenter, No. 31 of the Carpenter genealogy in Germanna Record No. 11.

19. Susannah Aylor, b. Sept. 23, 1792, m. Dec. 23, 1812 Simeon Murray.

20. Sarah Aylor (Sallie) m. Aug. 14, 1815 James Snyder, son of Michael Snyder (see manuscript on the Snyder family).

21. Annie Aylor m. July 18, 1806 Henry Murray.

22. Mary (Polly) Aylor, b. May 10, 1774, m. Rev. William Carpenter, her cousin, No. 23 of the Carpenter genealogy in Germanna Record No. 11.

5. Jacob Aylor was born ca. 1748 and died in Madison Co., Va. in 1840 or before, 1840 being the year in which his estate was settled. He married Frances Murray. James Aylor was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and was pensioned Aug. 26, 1833 at the age of 85 (Secretary of War's Pension Report, 1835, Vol. II). On Feb. 26, 1834, in testifying to Capt. Mark Finks's application for a Revolutionary pension, he mentions Lieut. James Murray (his brother-in-law), and still gave his age as 85. These two records indicate that he was born in 1748. Issue of Jacob and Frances (Murray) Aylor:

23. Martin Aylor.

24. Thomas Aylor, b. 1794.

25. Merry Aylor, b. ca. 1789 (independent tax-payer in 1810).

26. Ephraim Aylor b. 1786.

27. Aaron Aylor b. approximately 1781. Aaron Aylor is shown in the Hebron Church records. There is no strict proof that he was a son of Jacob Aylor No. 5, but it seems certain that he was, since he is not mentioned among the heirs of his brother, Henry Aylor No. 4, and the other brother, Abraham Aylor, had no children.

28. Elzey Aylor, died unmarried in Madison Co. in 1836, when his estate was settled, or a year or two before (W. B. 7). Jacob Aylor received money from the estate, and Merry Aylor, No. 25 above, "at the request of his father and mother" received $50 from Elzey's estate for caring for him during his illness. This shows that Elzey was almost certainly a son of Jacob and a brother of Merry.

29. Polly Aylor m. Feb. 21, 1814 William Hitt.

30. Rhoda Aylor m. Dec. 9, 1807 Evans Wilhoite.

31. Nancy Aylor (m) 1812 Caleb Wilhoite in Boone Co., Ky.

Fourth Generation

11. Lewis Aylor born 1788 (aged 62, Census of 1850) and died in Madison Co., Va. Mar. 9, 1853 (from Family Bible owned by the author of this genealogy). He married Feb. 20, 1810 Nancy Creel (b. 1792, as she was given as 58 in the Census of 1850), who died Mar. 11, 1853. The Madison Co. Census of 1820 shows Lewis Aylor with 5 sons and 1 daughter b. 1810-20. Issue:

32. John C. Aylor, living with his brother Alexander in Boone Co., Ky. in the Census of 1850, apparently unmarried, and died there in 1852, leaving a will which left most of his estate in Kentucky to Mary Rouse, wife of Augustus Rouse; but she was not a daughter, since the will does not refer to her as such, and money he left was to be divided among his brothers and sisters and the children of his deceased brother, James.

33. James Aylor, b. 1811, mentioned as deceased in his brother John C.'s will in 1852; James married and left children, living in Madison Co., Va. in 1852, but their names are unknown.

34. Richard Henry Aylor b. Nov. 3, 1813.

35. Staunton Aylor, b. 1815.

36. Milton Aylor, b. 1820.

37. Thomas Jefferson Aylor, b. 1827, m. Dec. 22, 1847 Mrs. Louisa Hartsook, but they had no children. Virginia Archives, Vol. 8, p. 343, states that Thomas Jefferson Aylor was a Confederate soldier, captured in Oct., 1864, and died in prison in 1865, being buried at Point Lookout, Md.

38. Alexander Aylor, b. ca. 1824, m. Eliza Aylor, b. ca. 1833, lived in Boone Co., Kentucky, where he witnessed the will of his brother, John C. Aylor in 1852, but his children, if any, are unknown.

39. Sarah (Sallie) Aylor m. (1) Oct. 20, 1839 William Rivercombe; m. (2) before 1853 Mr. Stringfellow.

40. Mary (Polly) Aylor, m. Dec. 16, 1844 Stewart Yowell.

12. Michael Aylor was born Nov. 10, 1772 and married in Culpeper Co., Va. Mar. 24, 1795 Sarah Baughorn (Vaughan). Michael Aylor had moved to Boone Co., Ky. by Dec. 18, 1811, when he sold his land in Madison Co., Va. to Henry Aylor, presumably his father, Henry No. 4. An entry in Culpeper Co. D. B. "II" reads: "An heir of Mordecai Vaughan was his daughter Sarah, who married Michael Aylor". When this suit occurred, both Michael and Sarah were dead, but their children were listed, as follows, though Michael's will in Boone Co., Ky., left all his property to his daughter Lucy.

41. Henry Aylor, b. 1797.

42. William Aylor b. 1799.

43. Lyatia Aylor b. 1801, m. Elizabeth ...., who had perhaps been previously married to a Blankenbaker, as the Census of 1850 shows two Blankenbaker children, ages 11 and 8, living in Lyatia's family.

44. James Aylor b. 1802.

45. Lucy Aylor m. Hezekiah Powell of Kentucky.

13. Absalom Aylor was born probably ca. 1785 and married in Madison Co., Va. Jan. 20, 1806 Mary Carpenter, his cousin, daughter of Solomon Carpenter, No. 27 of the Carpenter genealogy in Germanna Record No. 11. Absalom Aylor died in Madison Co. in 1826, his will being probated in August, 1826 (W. B. 5, p. 31). Absalom was confirmed at Hebron Lutheran Church in 1802, but his wife joined the Robinson River Baptist Church in 1832. The 1820 Census shows Absalom Aylor's family as 1 male and 1 female 26-45, 1 son and 2 daughters 10-16, and 4 sons and 1 daughter under 10. Issue:

46. Jeremiah Aylor b. approximately 1808, m. Aug. 14, 1837 Mrs. Elizabeth Hoard; Jeremiah and his wife were members of the Robinson River Baptist Church while living in Madison Co., Va.; they moved west in 1857; no issue.

47. William C. Aylor b. approximately 1810.

48. Henry Aylor b. 1811 (aged 39, Madison Co. Census of 1850).

49. Gabriel Aylor, b. 1815.

50. Absalom Aylor, b. 1820 (age 30, Census of 1850), m. Mar. 12, 1840 Virinda Carpenter, No. 233 of the Carpenter genealogy in Germanna Record No. 11, which states (p. 42) that they had no children. However, Absalom Aylor in his will in 1861 (Madison Co. W. B. 17, p. 370) mentions children, though he does not name them.

51. Mary Aylor, b. 1823, never married, living in the family of Robert Carpenter in Madison Co. in 1850.

52. Julia Aylor b. Feb. 23, 1843 Moses Gallihugh.

53. Sarah Aylor m. Dec. 22, 1841 Joseph W. L. Carpenter, No. 240 of the Carpenter genealogy in Germanna Record No. 11, where their family is given (p. 44).

53a. Ann Aylor b. 1806, m. Silas Carpenter, No. 124 of the Carpenter genealogy.

14. William Aylor was apparently the young man, aged 16-26, living in the family of his mother, Barbara Aylor, in the Census of 1820, and is perhaps the Aylor who moved later to Dallas, Ga., who had at least one son apparently:

54. Anthony Aylor, b. 1824.

15. John H. Aylor married in Madison Co., Va. Oct. 23, 1811 Judith Terrill. The 1820 Census of Madison Co. shows him and his wife, aged 26-45, and 2 sons and 1 daughter under 10. Issue:

55. Gatesby Aylor

56 & 57. A son and daughter, names unknown.

16. James Aylor, b. 1795, married in Madison Co., Va. Feb. 19, 1819 Henrietta Underwood, b. 1794. They were living in Boone Co., Ky. in the Census of 1850, which gives them the above ages, and had the following children:

58. William C. Aylor, b. approximately 1822.

59. Frances Aylor b. 1824.

60. Eliza Aylor b. 1826.

61. Ellen Aylor b. 1828.

17. Benjamin Aylor b. 1778, d. 1851 in Boone Co., Ky., m. Anna Tanner (1783-1854) (for her ancestry see the Tanner Family). The marriage occurred Dec. 7, 1800 in Madison Co., Va. and Benjamin was confirmed at Hebron Church in the same year. He last appears in the Madison Co. tax lists in 1807, and soon moved to Boone Co., Ky., where he and his wife were members of Hopeful Lutheran Church in 1814. The Census of 1850 for that county shows him as 71 and Anna as 67. His will was recorded in Kentucky, and bears date Feb. 12, 1851. Issue:

62. William Augustus Aylor b. May 7, 1803, no further record.

63. Ephraim Aylor b. Nov. 26, 1805.

64. Staunton Aylor, b. Feb. 10, 1815, d. April 21, 1894, m. Elizabeth Ann ...., b. Dec. 28, 1821, d. Nov. 17, 1892 (dates from their tombstones in the Aylor Cemetery, Rt. 42, near Union, Ky.). Children, if any, unknown.

65. Jamison Aylor.

66. Mildred Aylor b. Sept. 30, 1801, m. an Adams.

67. Susanna Aylor m. Jacob Carpenter, apparently Jacob Israel Carpenter No. 129 of the Carpenter genealogy in Germanna Record No. 11.

68. Polly Aylor m. a Norman.

69. Almedia Harriet Aylor, b. 1819, d. 1854, m. a Stonesiffer.

70. Anna Aylor m. a Clore.

23. Martin Aylor was born ca. 1788. He operated the old Burnt Woods Mill, which was burned just before the Civil War. It is thought that he went west, but returned to Virginia where he lived with his daughter. In 1839 he bought 182 acres from the Barbara Aylor estate. He was living in 1848. He married, but his wife's name is unknown, and had one daughter:

71. Elizabeth Aylor.

24. Thomas Aylor was born in 1794, m. (1) Mar. 18, 1836 Mary J. Hoffman, and (2) Nov. 8, 1853 Louisa Rosson. The first wife had died prior to 1850, for the Madison Co. Census of that year lists only Thomas Aylor, aged 56 and 2 sons as follows:

72. Albert Aylor b. 1837.

73. Jacob Aylor, b. 1840, d. 1858, never married.

By his second marriage Thomas Aylor had:
74. Alma Aylor m. May 21, 1874 John S. Ford.

25. Merry Aylor m. in Madison Co., Va. Aug. 2, 1815 Elizabeth (Betsy) Sparks. He is shown as an independent tax payer in Madison Co. in 1810 and at one time was a large land-owner in the county, owning 1258 acres. Issue:

75. John Parke Aylor, b. 1818.

76. Thomas Elzy Aylor, b. 1823.

77. Susan F. Aylor m. Dec. 21, 1841 William Wayland, No. 121 of the Wayland genealogy in Germanna Record No. 11.

78. Sally Aylor m. John Fry or Fray.

26. Ephraim Aylor was born in 1786 and died June 14, 1868 in Boone Co., Ky. His wife was named Lydia (b. 1815, d. 1847). He and his wife and children are buried in the Aylor Cemetery, Route 42, near Union, Ky., and the dates are taken from the tombstones. Issue:

79. William B. Aylor, d. Mar. 5, 1846, apparently never married.

80. Simeon G. Aylor, d. April 23, 1866, aged 25.

81. Cora Aylor d. 18—, aged 10 months.

82. Ellender F. Aylor, d. 1846.

83. Adam Aylor d. Mar. 18, 1865.

27. Aaron Aylor, b. approximately 1781, m. Catherine .... This family moved away from Madison Co. after 1806, and the only reference to them is in the Hebron Church records, which show the following children:

84. Jonas Aylor b. July 26, 1806.

85. Alpha Aylor b. May 8, 1802.

86. Lucy Aylor b. Jan. 27, 1804.

Fifth Generation

34. Richard Henry Aylor was born Nov. 3, 1813 and died in Madison Co., Va. July 17, 1905. He married (1) Mary Ann Harmons (1816-1860), said to have been from Texas. He married (2) April 16, 1863 Judith Frances Mitchell, b. Aug. 3, 1837, d. Feb. 2, 1917, daughter of John Mitchell (b. Feb. 2, 1804, d. Oct., 1855) and granddaughter of Lovelace Mitchell (b. June 30, 1783, d. Dec. 3, 1814), all of Madison Co. Richard Henry Aylor and both wives are buried on his farm near Novum, Va. in Madison Co. He purchased several $300 Confederate War Bonds, because he was unable to join the Southern forces. By his first marriage Henry Aylor had:

87. John Edward Aylor, b. May 1, 1842.

88. James Henry Aylor b. Sept. 13, 1852.

89. Sarah Frances Aylor, b. Aug. 8, 1837, m. Thomas Romaine; she was the grandmother of Mrs. Champ Blankenbaker and others now living in Madison Co. and surrounding territory.

90. Elizabeth Jane Aylor, b. 1849, m. Walker Yowell.

91. Lucy Anne Aylor b. Nov. 1, 1839, d. Sept. 16, 1859, unmarried.

Issue of Richard Henry Aylor by his second marriage:

92. Benjamin Franklin Aylor b. Nov. 30, 1869, d. Oct. 7, 1937.

THE SNYDER FAMILY*

Henry Snyder, the 1717 colonist, left all his property to his daughter, Anna Magdalena Aylor, and apparently his only descendants are through her two children, Henry Aylor and Elizabeth, wife of Christopher Tanner (see Germanna Record No. 6, p. 40). John Snyder and Philip Snyder, later comers to what is now Madison Co., Va., may have been Henry's nephews, and were perhaps brothers, as the names Adam and Michael appear in both their families. This article will deal with these two men.

The Line of John Snyder.

First Generation.

1. John Snyder first appears in Virginia in 1742, when he witnessed the will of Michael Wilhoite, the Germanna pioneer. "Mr. Barrickman states that John Snyder came to Virginia from Pennsylvania and that he was born in 1720." He is not mentioned in the Orange Co., Va. tithables as late as 1739, so probably came to Virginia around 1740. He and his wife Mary were granted land by Lord Fairfax in 1747, and he died in Culpeper Co., Va. in 1760. His will, made in 1760 and probated April 17, 1760 (Culpeper Co. W. B. "A", p. 214), was written in German and translated by Rev. George Samuel Klug, the second pastor of Hebron Lutheran Church. It divides his 270 acres of land among his three sons, John being the eldest, Adam the next, and Michael the youngest; directs that the three sons together pay 17 pounds to his five daughters to be equally divided among them as their portion instead of the land; and leaves the rest of his property to his wife, and after her death to be divided among all eight children; witnesses, William Cawl, John Knuesbay and Henry Huphman.

Issue of John and Mary Snyder:

2. John Snyder, b. probably ca. 1740-45.
3. Adam Snyder, b. probably ca. 1745-50.
4. Michael Snyder b. probably ca. 1750-55.

5-9. Five daughters, names unknown.

My many thanks to "Ray Dibert" for the things he told me and the places he showed me, and without his getting a notarized statement, the grave of George Croyle would be lost to history.

My thanks also goes to Ray's sister, Hester Koontz and her daughter Mable Irene for the beautiful pictures of the old Croyles, and the information they gave me. I wonder if this family knows how much Croyle Blood they have. The mother of Frank was Mary Jane, who was the daughter of Jacob and Mary Magdaline Croyle and the mother of Elmira was Hester (Snider) Croyle, Daughter of George Croyle.

Hiram Oyler apparently lived in Stoyestown, Somerset Co. Pa. most or all of his life. He married Ellen SHAEFER sometime before 1850 and had 5 children. The children are listed in BK. I have not been able to locate an obituary on him or a burial location.

As Stoyestown is a small city and has very few cemeteries it is likely that he either is not buried there or there was never a stone erected. As there is a general lack of interest in this family for documenting anything it is likely there was never a stone erected. It is also possible that since he was in debt when he died that what little money their might have been was used for other purposes.

Orphans court dockets place his death sometime late in 1862. The only know microfilm records of that era were located at Biessecker library in the city of Somerset, Somerset Co. Pa. At some past time there was a fire at the library and all the microfilms from the Civil war years were lost.

I have been to Stoyestown many times and have asked many people if they know of any small burial plots in the area. To date I have located only one other than Ling Ceme. on the main road. There are no Oyler burials there.

Hiram was a blacksmith and family tradition states he was kicked by a horse he was shoeing and killed. At the time of his death he owned only 1/4 acre of land that was sold to pay his debts. His son and my husband's ancestor, James Buchanan would have been eleven in 1870 and is listed as living with another family (I will add this when I find the census) . I do not know what happened to the others.

Family tradition also states that the children were raised by a tavern owner after their mothers death . To date I have not been able to figure out what happened to the children (except James) or their mother. I believe that Ellen either died sometime before 1870, or was subject to some other fate. Whatever happened to her , her family was apparently not raised by her.

There is a George Oyler buried in Sandyvale Ceme. I suppose it is 35092 possible that this child was a fifer or something in the Civil War , but as he was born about 1853 he would have been very young at his death. There was also a Pete Oyler living in Johnstown who died recently who was apparently the son of the youngest Child Hiram (Herman). What happened to John and Mary is unknown.

There was also a 35157 Frederick Oyler living in Stoyestown who is of the right age group to have been Hirams father. I have not however been able to establish any link. Frederick is not listed on the 1860 Census so I assume he either died or moved before then as there are also no land records I can find.

It is my hope to someday establish a history for Hiram Oyler. To date I have been searching for about 10 years, and it has eluded me.

Phillip Schmacher and Franz Gross, from Weiss-Eichen-Land, Lancaster County; Br. Peter Eichenberg, Christopher Reiser, from Canopstock, Valentin Bressler and Phillip Lebig, from Great Canavagon; Br. Alexander Mack, from Germantown; Martin Urner, Peter Reinhart, Joseph Clingbill from Schulkyll; Br. Peter Brillhart and Rudy Pund, from Cattowas Bergen; Br. Heinrich Damm, Philipp Diel, from McAllister's Town; Br. Jacob Danner, and, furthermore, the Brethren at Beaver's Dam and Pipe Creek, in the house of Br. Abraham Grumbacher. Daniel was not with us on Sunday. There was a complaint that many brethren would not abolish their distilling notwithstanding all the evil which has resulted from it. There was a tearful complaint that some brethren, of their own free will, would allow their young folks to go to the drill-ground and parade-ground. We, the assembled brethren, resolved that there could be no holy communion with such brethren as have been admonished and yet do not keep their young people off such places, because they make no difference between the Body of the Lord, and the human body. There was also a complaint about some brother of South Branch who permits the taking of an oath in the case of an emergency. A written admonition was sent to them, signed by four brethren, in the name of the assembly—further a memorandum to Br. William Stuber, near Antietam, concerning the Continental money, paid to Michael Zug. There was also much objection to the taking of Interest, and it was suggested, in brotherly love, to abstain from doing so. Moreover, four brethren, living in Baltimore, were baptized on Sunday afternoon. We elected by general consent Br. Nathaniel Schreiber as a sub-deacon to Br. Michael Offantz, and Philipp Eyler. In the evening, a love-feast was held, and a common communion. On Monday four went to Beaver's Creek in order to discuss some quarrels between the brethren, which took them until after midnight. Br. Samuel Gerber, Br. Souder went home on Tuesday with Br. Heinrich Danner, and had there a meeting on Thursday. We set out for Connostecken on Friday, and held a meeting on Saturday at Hans Myer's. Sunday night we came home and found our dear ones well, by the Grace of God who has preserved and saved us on our way. In remembrance of brotherly love, all the members (who took part in the aforementioned meeting) send their heartfelt and universal greetings of love to all the members in our district."

The Brethren and Ardent Spirits

The Brethren have always taken a stand against the practice of the manufacture and use of alcoholic beverages, especially among the members. In the period about 1768 to 1850, making whiskey was one of the very serious questions that kept coming to the Annual Conference. The sale and use of ardent spirits divided families, robbed individuals of their self-respect and brought decadence to the family and community life. The Brethren have been historically strong in developing and maintaining a well-rounded personal and family life.

Members of the church were absolutely forbidden to own or use distilleries or to be engaged in any work connected with the liquor business. The Annual Conference Minutes of 1781, 1787, 1789, 1832, 1836, 1846 and several others spent a large amount of time in dealing with this evil practice.

In the period of 1770 to 1795, the practice of running stills loomed large before the Brethren and many of them engaged in the practice. However, there were, at least, a dozen good mills in the area by 1790. Rather than to cart their grain all the way to the Bedford, Cumberland and eastern markets, they reasoned that it was cheaper and less trouble to sell their grain to the distiller, and they received a good price, or make the whiskey themselves.

With the doctrinal practices of the Seventh Day Baptists, and more especially with the attitude and beliefs of Elder George Adam Martin, the colony's "spiritual father," there was the belief among these people that one could commit almost any deed and find release or forgiveness by merely going to God for forgiveness. The Brethren believed that the "simple daily life of purity" was the only way that any Christian could lead the good life and be an influence for his Christ and his Church.

On March 16, 1684, the Province of Pennsylvania passed the first bill dealing with the levy of taxes on distilled liquors. This was a small levy but affected the people more especially of Southwestern Pennsylvania, in the counties of Bedford, Somerset, Westmoreland (of course, these counties were organized much later and few people lived in the area that early). About 1770, when the areas beyond the Allegheny Mountains were settled, this became a serious problem both for the citizen and the government. Whiskey tax collectors were sent into the area in 1772. This same year the law was increased to levy taxes on both foreign and domestic manufacture and sale of liquor in the colony. By 1776-1780, the establishment of distillers had so depleted the grain collection for the new Revolutionary army

MIGRATIONS TO CANADA

The Pipe Creek Church of the Brethren is the oldest congregation in Maryland and is the mother-church to the Maryland Church. This congregation was organized by Elder Martin Urner, II, in the summer of 1751, in the home of Woolery Grumbacker, making his home the meetinghouse. The modern church stands on the Hoover tract, known locally as the Jonas Huber (Hoover) farm, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Arbaugh, members of this congregation. Jonas Hoover was the ancestor of former President Herbert Hoover. President Hoover was on this tract while president of the United States and had it resurveyed and replotted for family records. Some of the Hoover ancestors lie sleeping in the Quaker Hill Meetinghouse near Union Bridge on the Priestland-Quaker Hill Road. Associated with the Hoovers were the Haines, also members of the Quaker Meetinghouse and some present members of this congregation.

In 1770 to 1774, migrations of Brethren, Mennonites and Quakers left what is now Carroll County, Maryland (then Frederick County), to settle in Brothers Valley, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. Jacob Hoover and sons Abraham, David, Benjamin and Daniel left the Pipe Creek area of Maryland and went with some twenty families to Somerset County.

In 1778-1781, the land of then Western Maryland, now Carroll and Frederick Counties, was issued to the veterans of the Revolutionary War in payment for their services. Some of these historic peace churchmen resettled in Somerset County, but by 1792 the Hoovers had settled in Haldimand County, Canada, in Rainham Township.

Many of these people had been loyal subjects to the King of England and in the American Colonies were called Tories while in Canada they were called Loyalists. Many of them in Maryland were English while others were of German extraction.

It was against the practice of the Brethren and Mennonites to swear oaths of any sort much less "Oath of Allegiance" to the King of England. They accepted oath-taking as a sinful practice, giving loyalty to an earthly sovereign when they practiced this type of loyalty as being opposed on Scriptural basis not in agreement with their Biblical beliefs. Hence they were persecuted unmercifully in some cases. There are several instances that about this time the Mennonites, Moravians, Brethren and Quakers of the Pipe Creek-Monocacy areas were persecuted to the degree that they were treated like animals: Their bodies were drawn like butchered animals; their limbs quartered; their heads put on pikes for the public to view. This was done to break their stubborn wills and support the King, later when the new American states were formed persecution was used to get them to support the new cause. Others were forced to leave the area because the land that many of them were living on and believed to be their lawful claims were not legally registered with the state. The land was resurveyed and given to the Revolutionary Pensioners.

We find that about 1778-1781 some of the following left this area and settled in Canada: William Haskins, Edward Higgins, Peter Booker, Frederick Booker, Samuel Yoder, Henry Miller, Cesar Martin, Nicholas Friend, James Moore, Mathew Judy, Jacob Wingert, Robert Pulclut, Peter Boocher, William Lundy, Benjamin Paulin, John Taylor, Mathias Ditch, Thomas Rice, Joshua Gillum (Gilliam), Joseph Havers, Thomas Steinton, Abraham Webster, James Winler, Samuel Taylor, Ezekiel Dennis, John Winsel, John Criner, William Dire, Casper Durst, Jeremiah Yoder, John Rowley, George Kimble, George Huber (Hoover), Jacob Hoofman (Huffman), William Tice, John Dilman, Jacob Culp (Kulp), Stoffel Kulp, Franklin Albright (Albrecht), Frederick Hahn (Hon), Jacob Kulp, (These last twelve families were Mennonites from the Antietam Creek section, near Hagerstown, Maryland.[1]

In 1789 or 1790 Henry Vaughn and Christian Troyer (Moyer, Boyer), and John Troyer left Somerset County, Pennsylvania for Canada. John Troyer had been a neighbor of Elder John Groner, near Roxbury, Somerset County. It seems that John Troyer was something of a local doctor and herb collector. He had come into contact with the famous Dr. Peter Fahrney of Antietam, Maryland. Also the local doctor John Croner, Jr. The Troyers became Mennonites in Canada.

The summer of 1778 a group left Maryland for Virginia and settled in Western Kentucky. Henry Fox and wife, George Heinemeyer and family, John Bowman and wife, George Moonger (Munger), Joseph Yoder, 1712–1713 Michael Brenneman, Leonard and Mary Kratz, were among the group. They were taken captive with some thirty others and taken to Fort Detroit. They were released by General Toombs after a large sum of money, supplies, and blankets was paid. They proceeded to Canada and settled along the shoreline of Lake Erie but later near Toronto.

In 1774 the following left Frederick County, Maryland, in the present bounds of Carroll County, along the Pipe Creek and along the Sams Creek:
? 391 Philip Fox, Jacob and John Iler (Eyler), John Snyder (Schneider), James 26 R. Brown, George Youst, Hendrich Youtzsy, George Field and sons Daniel, Henry, and Matthew, Isaac and Henry Dolsen. Some of these were Quakers and some Mennonites.

In 1770, one Frederick Arnold left Middletown Valley, Frederick County, Maryland, and settled in Canada near present site of Toronto. He being a Dunker had to flee because of his objection to taking the oath. It is said that he fled with a price on his head. He first settled near Elder Samuel Arnold in Brothers Valley. From here he settled for a while at Fort Redstone (Brownsville, Pennsylvania). About 1785 he moved on to Canada.

About 1787 the following went to Brothers Valley from along the Pipe Creek: Peter Shunk, Henry Morrison, Jacob and Henry Quantz, John Wright. Thomas Parsons (from Washington County, Maryland), Nathan Lewis (from Franklin County, Pennsylvania), John Hazard (from Baltimore County), Jacob and George Hill and John Henry Gordon.

From the same notes of Dr. E. C. Saylor the following Brethren families left Somerset County and moved into Canada: Philip Fry, from Shade Creek, moved into Canada across from Detroit, Lucas Detrich, John Troyer (referred to above), Philip Eckard (Eckhart), from Pipe Creek, Maryland. Moved to Canada in 1792, built a grist mill and a large house that was used for many years as a Dunker Meetinghouse. The mill was also used for this purpose earlier. John Eckard, George Iler, Harry Baughman, George Hosteter and George Seiler (Saylor), moved to York County, near Toronto, about 1794.

About 1795 the following families left Somerset County, settled for a while in New York, but later settled in Canada: Nicholas Miller, from near present Meyersdale, John Lions (Lyons), Henry Lyons and wife Mary Cober, daughter of Nicholas Cober. The Millers and Lyons moved about 1783. Nicholas Cober, Samuel Troyer, Peter Keefer, Henry Winger, Jacob Winger, Jacob Fisher, Conrad Weiser (had belonged to the Ephrata Society), all these moved about 1795.

In 1795, Elizabeth Fisher married Jacob Cummer, Eva Fisher married Peter Cober (both daughters of Jacob Fisher), formerly of Pipe Creek, Maryland.

(It must be inserted here that Dr. E. C. Saylor had ancestors in the old Pipe Creek Church, and there are many Saylors in this area today. He herefore must have had access to early Saylor family and community records that we do not now possess. This author has in his collection a arge volume of Seiler [Saylor] material and many of these names are here.)

Between 1795-1806, the following families migrated to Vaughn Township, Canada: John Baker (Becker), and son Jonathan, Peter Riser (Reeser) a Hessian soldier formerly from Pleasant Valley, Brownsville, Maryland. He moved to York Township about 1800. Michael Quantz, a Hessian soldier who had been taken to the Hessian detention camp near Charlottesville, Virginia, also settled in this area.

About 1785-87 a group left Frederick County, Maryland in the Pipe Creek-Monocacy area and fled into the wilderness as far from the civilization of the day as possible. Most of these would not take the "Oath of Allegiance" to the new government and had to leave what they had and flee: John Bean, George Bechtel, Joseph Sherk, Samuel Betzner, John Sherfig, John Horning, George Clemens, Henry Morningstar, James Wilson, Jacob Meyers, John Bricker, Samuel Bricker, John Erb, George Shupe, David Gingrich, Abraham Witmer (from Augusta County, Virginia), Peter Holmes (from Brownsville, Maryland), Neal Holmes (married a daughter of Nicholas Cober, and Elder Samuel Meyer (Moyer). He married Anna Bechtel about 1780, of Frederick County, Maryland. The Meyers (Moyers) were both Brethren and Mennonites. Samuel Meyer was a Mennonite elder. They settled in Lincoln County, Canada, in 1786.[2] 30285?

In 1806, Andrew Cook, brother of George Cook moved to the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia. He left there in 1807 and moved into the Toronto area.

In 1792, John and Michael Keffer moved to Canada and settled in York County. Dr. George Reamon in his book "The Trail of the Black Walnut," says on page 107

> ". . . they went to the Humber River in York County, where they selected Lots 8 to 14, comprising 1400 acres. Returning to Pennsylvania, they remained there until the death of their father in 1796. With their mother and wives they set out for York County once more. . . We know that Jacob settled in Vaughn Township on Lot 12 in the 3rd Concession in 1806. In 1811 he gave a plot of ground on the Concession of Vaughn near Sherwood to the Lutheran Church. Eight years later a church was built on the property. A Lutheran Church is still located there.

John Jacob Keffer did this same thing in Brothersvalley. In 1784 he gave forty and one half acres on the eastern side of Berlin for the laying off and building of a Lutheran Church. This is located now near what is the center of Berlin, Pennsylvania.[3]

Between 1784-1787, Jacob Fisher, Francis Hay and John Jacob Keffer laid out the burough of Berlin. The highest burough in altitude in Pennsylvania.

In 1768, Gottlieb Rieman (Reamon) settled in Stony Creek country, near the old Indian trail leading from Brotherton to Shanksville, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. Jacob Rieman, father of Gottlieb came from Switzerland and also settled in the Stony Creek country near his son. Gottlieb died in 1804. John, his eldest son in 1804 sold his 800 acre tract of land to his brother George. John moved to Canada to Vaughn Township the same year. Part of this tract is still in the hands of the Reimans (now spelled Reiman). Mr. and Mrs. Clair Reiman own the farm and are members of the Brothersvalley congregation. The Reimans have been members since 1768. The old Reiman burial ground is located on the edge of the Sherman Yoder and the Walker farm, just off the road leading past the Yoder home.

Migrations into Canada from Brothersvalley seemed to stop for a while around 1808. Again about 1825-1830 they began again when Elder Michael Bueghly went on a preaching tour of the Brethren homes in Canada. It seems that there were few resident elders among the Brethren in that part of Canada. Children of the Brethren families were marrying outside the church into the Mennonite, Lutheran and Brethren in Christ churches. The elders petitioned the Pennsylvania Brethren to come up and help them. By that time the Brethren in Christ were a strong influence. In 1778, Jacob Engle and a few other elders of the Brethren met and formed a new branch of the Brethren and organized into the Brethren in Christ. In 1779 they visited Canada and some moved there. By 1785 their influence was being felt. By the time that the elders from Somerset County visited among the families who moved from Pennsylvania they found that the Brethren cause was all but lost. The "Dunkards" as the Brethren in Christ were being generally called had been strongly entrenched into the fibre of Brethren culture and Brethren homes.

Elder Bueghly, Samuel Hoover, Elder John Filmore and Jonathan Flick all stayed about a year in Canada trying to help. They were impressed with the land, the pleasant and long growing season, about two to three weeks longer than in Brothersvalley, and the pleasant people. If the reader will turn to the Appendix he will read the names of all of these Brethren in the Orange Township lists of Iowa Migrations.

Elder Samuel M. Miller and wife Anna Bueghly moved to near Toronto in 1856 but relocated in Orange Township Iowa, in 1858.

William Miller, John A. Lichty, Matthias Miller and Elder Elias K. Bueghly also moved to the Toronto area and remained there about three years. Elder Elias Bueghly returned to Somerset County around 1855. He went to Orange Township, Iowa, in 1856, and then back to Brothersvalley. In 1856-57, Elias K. Bueghly was instrumental in getting the stream of migration started from Somerset County to Iowa.[4]

Elder Abraham Hochestetter and wife Rachael Rankin and Elder Jacob Murray and wife Sarah Baunders of Fayette County, Pennsylvania, also moved to Vaughn Township. It seems that they did not stay more than a year or two. Their names appear also in Orange Township, Iowa, 1864. There seemed little hope in reviving the Church of the Brethren in Canada for the Brethren in Christ Church and the Mennonite Church were stronger than the Brethren influence and these two churches were giving adaquate leadership and spiritual guidance. There do not appear to be any other elders who moved to Canada or who attempted to organize the church there. However, there are scattered reports of Brethren visits to the area up to the turn of the twentieth century but these seem to have been visits to relatives rather than a planned or organized effort for evangelism. There are occasional references to "Dunkard" families and churches in that area but this seems to be in reference to the Brethren in Christ Church.

There are many family names of the Brethren throughout this area but they are original Brethren names rather than modern day references to our movement. A careful study by Dr. George Reamon, of the University of Western Ontario, of Brethren movements in Canada, bear out the facts herein stated. His book "The Trail of the Black Walnut" is an exhaustive study on the migrations and movements of the German Pennsylvanians in Canada.

A PROPHET WRESTLES WITH SATAN

Elder William Sevits (1812-1889), was born in Stonycreek Township, son of Benjamin and Catharine Sevits. He was married to Barbara Miller about 1835. The family attended the old Kimmel Church, built in 1858, on the Jonathan Kimmel farm, later the farm belonging to Ellis Kimmel. This old church was skidded on a sled to Downey and was called the Home Church, the forerunner of the Berlin Brethren Church. William Sevits was a naturally good singer and led singing schools in the Stonycreek section. He had a strong voice and sang and later after being installed into the ministry, preached in an equally strong delivery. He drew great crowds when he preached. He preached many times two sermons; one in English, followed by one in German.

He was elected to the ministry in 1862 and ordained in 1880 in the old Grove Church. He was a close friend and co-worker with Elder Jacob Blough. It is related around here that before Elder Jacob Blough died, William Sevits had him promise that after he died, Elder Sevits was to be laid to rest in his time beside the kind old elder. He is buried in the Blough Cemetery near Berlin, Pennsylvania.

William Sevits was one of the strongest and largest men in Stonycreek. In his young manhood he was considered one of the strongest men of the area. It is said that he could stand in a hogshead, reach outside and lift two sacks of grain upon his shoulders at one time. He won wrestling matches in the area. It is said that no one ever heard him use the loud, hard language that the other men used when wrestling. He would get his head down and stretch every muscle in the match; when he did, something usually happened. Other men liked to wrestle with him for he was kind in spite of the roughness that usually followed in such matches. There were many who took great delight in tormenting him because he never spoke back or talked like the others, but when they got rough with him, he really put the pressure on them and they usually had to yield.

The following is a true story. About ninety years ago (1872), Elder William Sevits was holding a revival meeting in one of the churches in Somerset County, which is located in a very mountainous region. This was in a district where the ruffians had a habit of breaking up revival meetings. They thought it a bit of pleasure to show off their strength and courage in such a way. They tried many ways to make it uncomfortable for the evangelist.

On the third evening of this revival meeting, after the Elder read the Scripture and had announced his sermon topic, a strange thing happened. Elder Sevits announced that his sermon topic was "Casting Out Devils." Two tall, strong, rough-looking ruffians came to the front of the church and stood facing the pulpit. One of them, well over six feet, held up a whiskey bottle and offered Elder Sevits a drink from his bottle in the presence of the whole congregation—the church well filled.

On this challenge, Elder Sevits stepped down in front of the congregation to where the two men were standing. He quickly grabbed the two trouble-makers by the necks and bumped their heads together with such a thump that they both collapsed before the people on the floor unconscious. The Elder then, without saying a word, stooped down and took them each by an arm and pulled them outside the church and dumped them on the ground. Two others fled out the doors and did not return.

Mr. George Fenwick Jones, Executive Secretary
Maryland's German Heritage
Department of German and Slavic University of Maryland
College Park, MD 20742

Dear Mr. Jones:

Thank you for including JSHA Inc. on your mailing list announcing the events of Maryland's German Heritage Year.

Assuming that you are not aware of the goals of JSHA Inc., it is engaged in research, publication and preservation of the history, culture, heritage, genealogy, art forms, social, economic and religious practices of those 6,000 German Auxiliaries to the British Crown (Hessians) who remained in America after the Revolution.

A fair number of those Germans who were POWs at Frederick, or who passed through Maryland, enroute to and from Virginia, deserted and settled in Maryland. Our studies are still not far enough along to make accurate estimates of numbers, but we know the influence of those men and their descendents played key rolls in the grass root development wherever they settled.

Subject to approval of our Board, JSHA Inc. would like to appear at the College Park Meeting 15 Oct '83--providing a speaker with an appropriate topic. We would also like to staff a booth and answer questions on the general topic of the "Hessian Presence" in Maryland, as well as display our publications.

I am also intrigued by your scheduled open house at the Hessian Barracks in Frederick on 22 Oct '83. No doubt there will be many questions asked by the visitors. Will there be staff members available to respond to questions such as:

1. What specific Hessian Units were interned at the barracks, and during what periods of time?
2. Are there muster rolls available containing the names of the POWs who were interned there?
3. Were there German Units interned there, other than Hessians?
4. Are there names available of Germans who deserted during the period of their interment?
5. Who was the American Commissioner of Prisoners in charge of the barracks?

JSHA Inc. personnel or members would like to participate during the open house at the Barracks if you believe we can be of service.

Please add the names of JSHA Inc. Directors, as shown on the attached sheet, to your mailing list.

We will await your response.

Sincerely yours,

M. A. SCHWALM, Secretary

Phillippi May Have Been 1st Settler

Francis Phillippi first to spy the goodly land and return to possess it.

There is some question as who was the first actual permanent settler in Somerset County, after the aborigines, but it appears to be well authenticated that Francis Phillippi was the first white man to spy the goodly land in its pristine virginity, to be impressed with its beauty and fertility and to return to it later to possess it.

The following article about the pioneer Francis Phillippi appeared in the Centennial Edition of the Somerset Vedette, published June 24, 1895:

Francis Phillippi was one of the pioneers who settled in Milford Township at a very early day. While he was not actually the very first of these early settlers to locate here, we believe it may be fairly held that to him belongs the distinction of having been the first white man who ever penetrated into the territory of what is now Somerset County, and who afterwards became an actual settler therein.

According to well authenticated tradition, he was along with Braddock's unfortunate expedition to Fort Duquesne (now Pittsburgh) in 1755 and was a participant in the events of that disastrous July day when Braddock's army was practically annihilated by the French and Indians on Braddock's historic battlefield.

Seeing that the battle was lost and that it was every man for himself, who expected to escape with his life, he unhooked a horse from a wagon, it is said, mounted the animal and pushed his way through the savage horde that was engaged in the indiscriminate slaughter of the British and Colonial troops, but received a bullet in one of his legs from their fire, before he succeeded in making his escape. He was pursued for some distance by the Indians but finally got clear of them.

When beyond immediate danger he rode on during the remaining part of the day and all through the night, as fast as he could make his way through the woods.

At the start there was no time to think whither he was fleeing, and at night he could not tell his course. All he could do was to get as far away from the bloody field as possible. Morning found him far away in an unknown wilderness, his horse exhausted and himself without food.

He now set his face toward the rising sun and bore on all day. But as his horse and himself were both feeble from their long journey and want of food, his progress was very slow and he was compelled to halt and rest for the night.

The morning found him in bad condition for the continuation of his journey. The horse was scarcely able to move and he in but little better condition. He, therefore, abandoned the horse on the western side of Laurel Hill Mountain, and resumed his journey on foot. The great problem with him was the matter of subsistence. True he had brought along his gun, but it had only a single charge of ammunition. For ten days he subsisted on berries. He saw some game, but with only a single charge of ammunition, he realized that he must make a sure shot; he could take no risk.

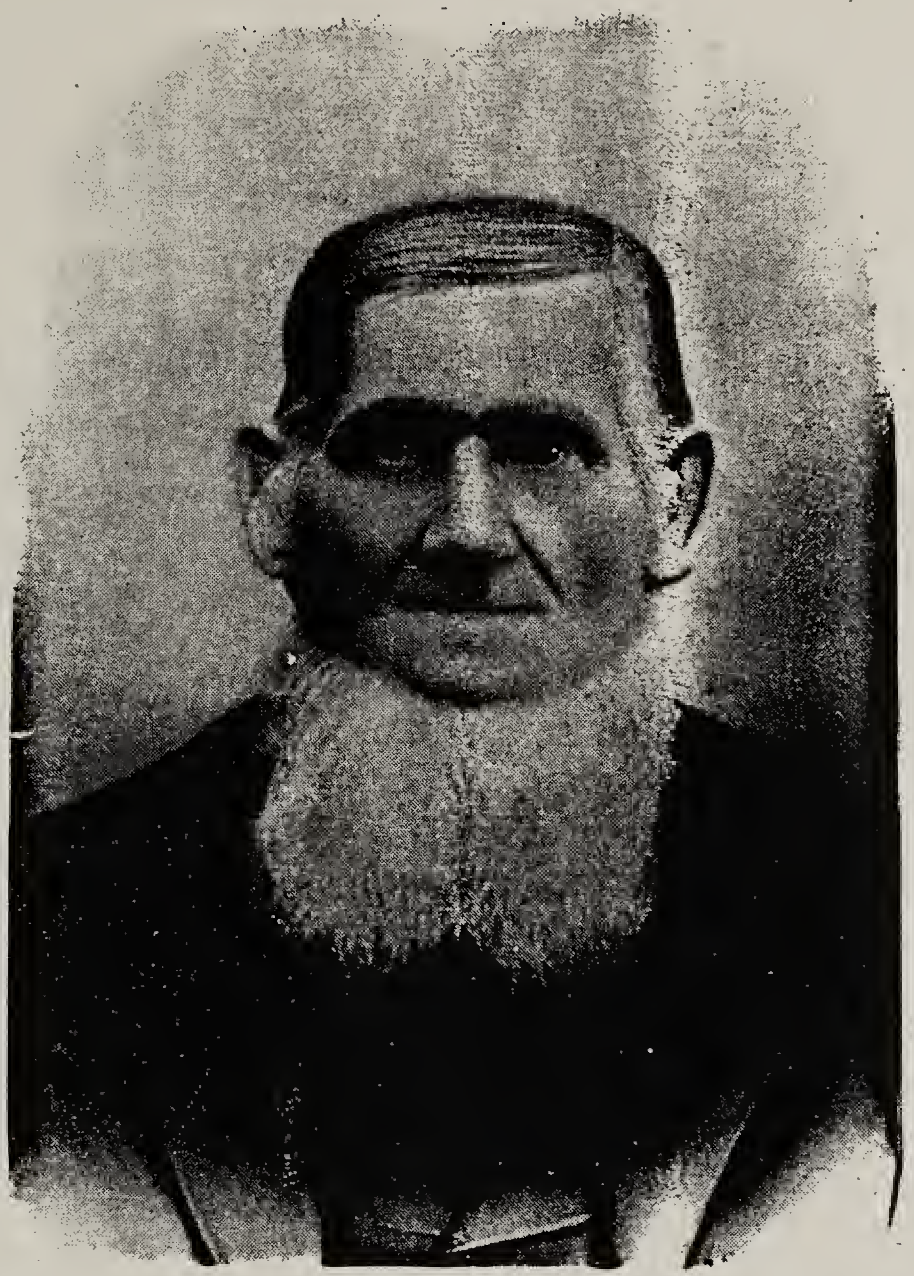
Crossing Laurel Hill and descending into the valley he reached Laurel Hill Creek near where the Clay Pike now crosses that stream. Somewhere in that vicinity he had the good fortune to come upon a deer that was lying in the grass within a few feet of him, and was fortunate enough to shoot it dead with his only charge of powder and ball. As the blood flowed from the wound, he applied his lips and drank the warm blood to appease his raging hunger, after which he took as much of the meat as he could well carry and continued his journey and finally reached the eastern settlements.

In passing through the confines of what is now Somerset County, his attention was attracted to the fine open glades (natural meadows) in the vicinity of the present village of New Centerville. The desirability of this land for farming purposes so impressed him that he resolved to come back some time to possess a portion of it, if he survived his arduous journey through the trackless wilderness, and not many years later, according to tradition, he did so, there being only a few scattered settlers in the county at that time.

According to tradition, Francis Phillippi came to this county from Lebanon County, east of the Susquehanna River, in southeastern Pennsylvania, and was one of Col. George Washington's 300 Colonial troops that accompanied Gen. Braddock and his army of British Regulars on their ill-fated expedition, it being the job of these hardy Colonials to construct the road for the supply train of wagons and teamsters which Benjamin Franklin provided and recruited for the expedition. Most of these teamsters were Pennsylvania Germans from the southeastern counties of Pennsylvania, and it is most probable that Francis Phillippi was one of them. Many of his descendants are still living in the southern part of Somerset County and are also scattered throughout the country. His body is said to repose in an unmarked grave, save for a rough field stone without inscription, in an obscure part of the beautiful New Centerville Cemetery, the ground for which he is said to have donated

DESCENDANTS OF JACOB PHILLIPPI, A GRANDSON OF FRANCIS.

JACOB PHILLIPPI



Was born in Milford township, Somerset Co., Pa., April 8, 1818, and was a son of Rev. C. and Sally (Fedrow) Phillipi, both of whom have passed from the shores of time. In 1846, in his native county, he was married to Laura V. Bluebaugh, and their hearthstone has been graced with eight children: Samuel, Anna, Phoeba, Harriet, Sarah, Christina, Lucy G. and John. Jacob Phillipi was engaged in farming when the War of the Rebellion began. In answer to duty's call he was enrolled Aug. 15, 1861, at Springhill, Pa., as a private in Co. K. 85th Pa. V. I., 3d Brig., 8th Div., 10th A. C. He was wounded by fragment of shell in back during the year of 1862, and was treated in hospital at Newbern, N. C.; he was again wounded at the battle of Flat Bottom. Va., and was cared for in hospital at Philadelphia, Pa. He was conspicuous for his intrepid bravery in the battles of Yorktown, Williamsburg, Fair Oaks, Seven Pines, Seven days' battle, Jones Ford, Harrison Landing, Suffolk, Black Water, Southwest Creek, Kinston, Whitehall, Goldsboro, Foley Island, Morris Island, Ft. Wagner, Ft. Gregg, Petersburg and Deep Bottom. His brothers, Francis and Christ both served in Pa. Regiments during the war. The former was killed at the battle of Pittsburg Landing; latter was wounded in service. Comrade Phillipi is leading a retired life and he resides at Rockwood, Pennsylvania.

JACOB
DO-TEENA
JOSIAH OHLER
SARAH PHILLIPPI
b. 6/5/1855
ALEX
PYLE

Sarah Phillippi, born June 5, 1855, married Josiah Ohler and had five children. They first stayed near Paddytown, but because Sarah had cared for Liza Meritta May and her aunt, Bets May, while they were ill, she, Sarah, was willed their farm in Upper Turkeyfoot Twp., near Humbert.

Sarah and Jo's next farm, situated behind their son Alex's place in Upper Turkeyfoot Twp. near Old Bethel Church, is now owned by Buck and Pearl Tressler. They sold the milk and eggs produced by their cows and chickens.

They were good members of the Old Bethel Church.

Their last residence was in Casselman and they attended the Church of God there. Their daughter, Mary Pyle, lived there with Sarah after Jo died.

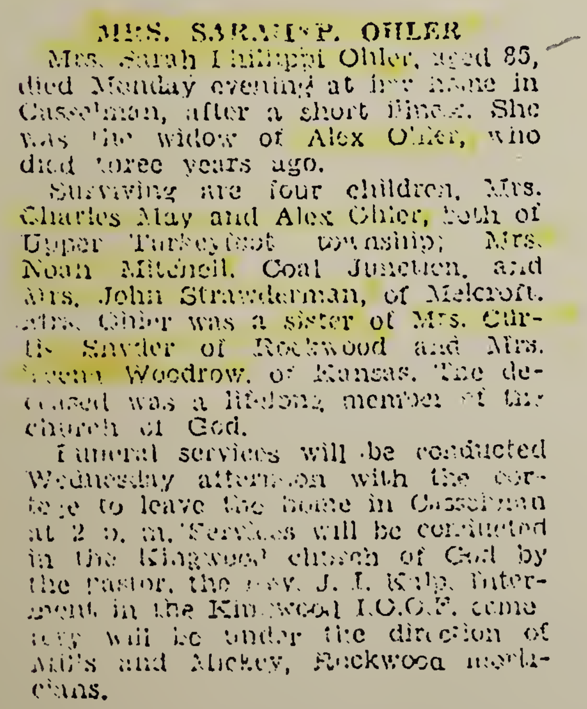
Sarah was raised by Jennie, Mike, and Christ May, all brother and sisters who never married, of Upper Turkeyfoot Twp. (As recalled by Ethel Spiker, raised from a child to adulthood.)

Jacob, Sarah's father, went to war and the children had to stay in different homes. Sarah cried when they parted the family but when he returned to get her she was mad, wouldn't look at him, cried, and wouldn't go home with him and never did.

Alex Ohler, Sarah's son, recalled that on the spur of the moment Jacob decided to go fight in the war and that the children were put into different homes. The children cried. When he returned they didn't reunite as a family. Alex also said in Sarah's later years she obtained her sister Teena's address from someone who had gone to Kansas. Sarah was thrilled to write to Teena because Sarah had never known her. They continued writing.

Edna Phillippi remembers that Sarah and Teena were raised elsewhere other than home. I found in the 1870 census of Upper Turkeyfoot Twp. a household of May's: Jane, John, Elizabeth, Catharine, & Christian. ? Their domestic servant was Sarah Phillipi.

Joseph's parents were John (1824-1894) and Catharine (Ohler). He had a brother Alexander (1855-1927) who married Catheryn (Baughman), see 706.



MRS. SARAH P. OHLER

Mrs. Sarah Phillippi Ohler, aged 85, died Monday evening at her home in Casselman, after a short illness. She was the widow of Alex Ohler, who died three years ago.

Surviving are four children, Mrs. Charles May and Alex Ohler, both of Upper Turkeyfoot township; Mrs. Noah Mitchell, Coal Junction, and Mrs. John Strawderman, of Melcroft. Mrs. Ohler was a sister of Mrs. Curtis Snyder of Rockwood and Mrs. Teena Woodrow, of Kansas. The deceased was a lifelong member of the church of God.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon with the cortege to leave the home in Casselman at 2 p. m. Services will be conducted in the Kingwood church of God by the pastor, the Rev. J. L. Kulp. Interment in the Kingwood I.O.O.F. cemetery will be under the direction of Mills and Hickey, Rockwood morticians.

Mr. Black's Tavern was operated by JAMES BLACK a Scotchman and his wife JANE McDONOUGH who had married in 1771, and then came into the wilderness of Bedford, now Somerset County to make their home. A descendant W. Harold Black writes, "On the Glade Road James Black built and operated the first hotel in Somerset County." Henry Black son of James was the father of JEREMIAH SULLIVAN BLACK who served as Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President Buchanan. (Additional records of the Black family printed Laurel Messenger May, 1961.) CASPER STOTLER was also a very early Tavern keeper. The Deeter improvement mentioned by T. Hutchins was the farm of Revolutionary War veteran, John Deeter. He was a natural mechanic and constructed his own saw-mill. He also cut mill-stones for customers. A mill stone (said to have been cut by his son Samuel) marks the grave of John and his wife Catherine Springer. They died in 1828. Their Bible names the following children, MAGDALENA b. 21 Apr. 1787; JOHN (1789-1812); ELIZABETH b. 4 May 1792; SAMUEL b. 25 Aug. 1794; JACOB b. 3 Apr. 1796; HENRY b. 22 Mar. 1798, died age 3 mo.; CATHERINE b. 8 Mar. 1800; ZALI (Sally) b. 27 May 1809.
